LaRue County Fatal Fire Ruled Accidental

Hodgenville woman dies from injuries

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Dec. 29, 2014) – The Kentucky State Fire Marshal's office and the Kentucky State Police today released a report from the investigation into a late night fire that took the life of a 76-year-old LaRue County woman. The victim has been identified as Helen Fields, of Hodgenville. The fire occurred just after 11 p.m. Saturday night.

The joint investigation ruled the fire accidental. While the origin of the fire was the use of smoking materials, the exact cause remains unknown. No other injuries were reported.
